Sample Answer

Change the Past?

Being able to change the past would be a great ability.

I would be able to reshape the course of history and have a deep impact on the present. I could change the consequences that unfolded and alter the destiny of my life, society, and even the world.

The retroactive power to change the past also holds the power to shape a more positive and beautiful future.

or

Travel with a Group?

I would opt for the power to change the future rather than the past.

It would empower me to shape the consequences that lie ahead in my life.

I could completely change my destiny into a bright future with many opportunities. The power to impact the future would allow us to move beyond the mistakes of our past.
